

First Front Door

Buying your first home? You could get up to $15,000 to help with your down payment and closing costs!

If you qualify for First Front Door (FFD), by contributing a minimum of $1,500 toward down payment and closing costs, you could be eligible for a maximum FFD grant of $15,000.

Who Qualifies

FFD recipients must be first-time homebuyers and have a household income of no more than 80 percent of your area's median income. You are considered a first-time homebuyer if:

- You have not owned an eligible property used as your primary residence in the last three years. This also includes, if purchasing jointly with other individuals, at least one person has not owned an eligible property used as a primary residence in the last three years. This also includes any person that has owned an eligible property jointly with another individual and is now independently purchasing an eligible property. If an investment property is owned, the person has not lived there and has not owned an eligible property used as a primary residence in the last three years.
